

TOM ELLING'S PENNSYLVANIA WRESTLING HANDBOOK

... A DYNAMIC MAT SPORT CHRONICLE

A former collegiate All-American and athletic visionary, Tom Elling has devoted over 50 years of his life to his avocation – the sport of wrestling. In fact, he knows every aspect of wrestling as a competitor, coach, official, historian, writer, and commentator.

Tom Elling's Pennsylvania Wrestling Handbook* is not only a masterpiece of mat sport information regarding the Keystone State's scholastic wrestling legacy, but it also spotlights yearly team and wrestling titlist results for surrounding Eastern States. Yes, the volume includes wrestling statistics from Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Virginia, West Virginia, and even the New England states as well.

The Handbook is a “one-of-a-kind” reference source for dedicated coaches, wrestlers, parents or fans, who truly want to keep on top of their game regarding “mat stats” of upcoming dual meets and tournaments. It gives them an inside track on their competition's successes and failures on the mats, especially against common opponents.

Tom Elling's Pennsylvania Wrestling Handbook* also highlights the most recent results of such prestigious wrestling events as Fargo (boy and girl wrestling results), Beast of the East, Ironman, Powerade, and many more. There are also yearly National Prep School Championship results for those whose mat interests pertain to independent or private school wrestling.

Should you be a Pennsylvania high school wrestling buff, the Handbook contains every wrestler who ever placed in the PIAA State championships since its inception in 1938.

Tom Elling's Pennsylvania Wrestling Handbook is a “must-have” addition to your mat sport library.
